JOB PRINTING.

Now that the Spring business has commenced, and merchants are preparing for their customers large stocks of goods, it may not be out of place to remind them that the SENTINEL JOB OFFICE, containing three steam and two hand presses, and employing 14 or 15 hands, is better prepared than any other in the State to do work HANDSOMELY, CHEAPLY AND AT THE SHORTEST NOTICE. Our stock of Papers and Inks, common and fancy, and of card board, plain, colored, and with handsome colored and gilt borders, is large and varied.

Merchants who desire, by issuing POSTERS—large or small—Handbills, Circulars, Show cards, &c., to invite attention to their stocks, cannot do better than to call and make their arrangements with us. Those who wish posters "illustrated with cuts" can be accommodated at this office.

The Rail Road Celebration To-Morrow.

The opening of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Rail Road to Madison, the Capital of State, is to be celebrated to-morrow with becoming festivities. The excursion train will leave this city at 7½ in the morning, arrive at Madison between 1 and 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and leave there again, on the return trip, at 5 P. M reaching Milwaukee at 10 o'clock at night. The fare for the trip both ways, is fixed at $2,00.

We hope our citizens will muster in force for this occasion. The opening of our Pioneer Rail Road to Madison is an auspicious event for our City and State. Let the number and character of the delegation we send to the Capital attest the deep interest we feel in the progress and prosecution of this great Iron Highway to the Mississippi, and the lively satisfaction with which we hail the completion of the link that unites us in closer bonds of social, commercial and political intercourse with our fellow-citizens of Madison.

Our Fire Department will be largely represented. Two of the Engines (Nos. 5 and 6) and from 125 to 150 Members of the several companies will go out on the Excursion train. They will take a Band of music and a piece of artillery with them. Our Musical Society will also turn out in full force. Of course, our City Authorities, Business men, the Press, &c., will be duly represented. Should the weather be pleasant, we doubt not that the occasion will be a joyous one, and that all who go will meet with warm welcome and cordial ho-pitality from the good people of Madison.

"The Sentinel's Opposition to Janesville"

Under this head our good-natured friends of the Gazette devote another half-column to the special benefit of the Sentinel. They first charged us, it will be remembered, with "narrow-mindedness and nolliguity, towards Janesville and one of its principal enterprizes, of the most extraordinary kind." We repelled the charge, as utterly without foundation, and called for proof. Here is what the Gazette, for want of proof, offers in answer to our call:

> The Milwaukee Sentinel in reply to our article last week, avers "manifesting or feeling any hostility to Janesville or its enterprises." We expected it would do so. It is just what it has done repeatedly before, with just about as much sincerity of being believed as now. It will do to use as a bugbear to those who have not read the Sentinel for a year or two past; with those who have, the idea is too ridiculous to be thought of.

Our friends of the Gazette are among those who have read the Sentinel for several years past, and yet they cannot find the first paragraph, line, or word in its columns, to justify their charge.—In other words, by their own tacit admission, it is pure calumny. Enough, therefore, on that head.

But if we have not "opposed" Janesville, the Gazette insists that we have opposed "one of its principal enterprizes," to wit, the Valley road.—Our opposition to that has been limited to the exposure of the fraud, dishonesty and duplicity which have marked the career of the Valley Company, and not only brought discredit upon them, but disgraced the whole State. Let the enterprize pass into honest hands and be fairly and honestly prosecuted, and neither the Gazette, nor any body else, will have further reason to complain of the opposition of the Sentinel. We war often no legitimate enterprize in this State, whatever may be its relation to Milwaukee.

As to our political course, wherewith the Gazette still seems to be dissatisfied, we are quite content to abide by the record of the past and the results of the future, and to be judged, now and at all times, by our words and acts. The Gazette concludes its last homily thus:

> When we learn again, as we have before, that the editor of the Sentinel counsels the nomination of a democrat for governor by a whig state convention, we perhaps may have less disposition in saying so to the public.

Whenever the Gazette does "learn" such a thing, we hope that it will dismiss its constitutional "delicacy" at once, and make the fact public without circumlocution or delay.

☞ Hon. W. M. Dennis, Bank Comptroller, and Senator Howell, left Milwaukee for Washington on Wednesday last. So says the Wisconsin. —Oshkosh Courier.

The Wisconsin also says that the Bank Comptroller is "in favor of the removal" of our City Postmaster—which seems to be the favorite measure of the State Administration—and insinuates that his business at Washington, like that of certain other functionaries from Wisconsin, is "to give Noonan a turn."

THE RAILROAD.—The track is now laid across the bridge and the cars will be able to approach the Depot to-night. They came across the bridge for the first time last evening and landed a large lot of passengers. The Iron Horse gave an exultwhoop as the cars reached the shore on this side of the lake, which must have startled the nymphs who we are bound to believe, inhabit its crystal depths, like "Sabrina fair, sitting beneath the glassy cool translucent wave"—not to mention the "pheelux" of the suckers and catfish.

THE MURDER TRIAL AT APPLETON.—We learn from the Green Bay Advocate, that the trial of Fredrick and Christiana Shoeffler, mother and son, for the murder of the son's wife, which took place before Judge HOWE, at the recent special term of the Outagomie Circuit, resulted in a verdict of Guilty against both the prisoners.

The defendants' Counsel gave notice of a motion for a new trial, which was submitted the next day, and in the case of the mother, a new trial was granted, upon the ground that the verdict was against evidence. A new trial was denied the other defendant. Judgment, however, was stayed to enable him to remove the case to the Supreme Court by writ of error.

HORICON R. R.—VOTE OF BERLIN.—A friend, whose letter we have not room for to-day, writes us that the town of Berlin, Marquette Co. voted on the 16th, to loan its credit, to the amount of $160,000, in aid of the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. Co. Berlin is a populous, thriving town, in the midst of a fertile region, and its people are wide awake to their own interests.

☞ Mrs. MOWATT appeared at Niblo's Theater, New York, on Saturday evening last, for a brief farewell engagement. The Mirror says that long before the curtain rose, the house was filled in every part and hundreds turned away. Her reception by the audience was most enthusiastic.

NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

New York, May 15.

Editors Sentinel:

Is it fair of old Winter to linger thus upon the lap of Spring, when Spring so evidently rebels against the burden? She seizes every free moment to twine fresh vines around rough corners, and hang bright blossoms beneath sheltering leaves, and in a thousand blessed ways makes war upon the grim old tyrant, who shakes off the flowers with which she would smother him, and pours down upon her such a flood of blinding, chilling rain, that her head is bowed to the earth again and again. Like Anteus, the touch of the strong Mother strengthens weary Spring, and once out of her shower bath, she crowns herself again with violets and anemones, and smiles at the baffled usurper. She will thaw his heart by and bye, and then we shall have long, fair days, and starlight nights.

That is the view of this astonishing weather according to classic heathendom. There is so much more beauty to the many in fabulous personation, than in quiet, matter-of-fact patience, that an imaginary contest between imaginary personages is far more attractive than the simple truth, that, for His own wise purposes, God gives us this discipline of storm and cloud.—Whether the weather has a tendency to develope latent evil, I cannot say, but canine madness, and human badness loom largely in the records of the past week. Dog-fights, rat-fights, wife-poisoning, child-killing, slavery extension, &c., &c., present rather a confusing view to the progressives who have discovered that there is no sin, and no Satan.

We are a great people, and this is a great Babylon which we have builded, but there seems something out of place when our representatives (by courtesy, so called,) presume to legislate slavery into regions from which it has been expressly excluded; something insecure in our Babylon, when its houses tumble about our ears. Yet there are residences on Manhattan Island, where the useful, the durable, the beautiful seem to dwell harmoniously together, a joy to every passer who has eyes for such attractions. Snowy magnolias send light into your heart, graceful glycines hang their delicate blossoms beside your path, though that path be the dusty street, and groups of bright-eyed flowers look at you through the iron railings.

> "They grow beside our paths and homes,
> "Or paths of sin, our homes of sorrow,
> "And sinful man where'er he roams,
> "Their innocent light may borrow."

In poor, dingy homes, as the street-car slides past, we can see cherished geraniums struggle into life through dust and smoke, warmed by the warm hearts that tend them. And even in busy Broadway, baskets of rose-buds and pansies plead against the hurry and the glare that would trample out and wither up the natural and the gentle. But the cars and stages whirl us past the mouths of streets through which pours continually a stream of vice and crime against which society needs other than a flowery barrier. Architectural elegance, horticultural beauty—it is other than these, that must raise into true life the death-in-life of the city's lowest strata.

It is painful, worse than painful, to see the sharp-eyed children of the rag-pickers, groping in dust-heaps and ash-barrels, pouncing like vultures on the refuse of nobler consumers. And yet the rag-picker's child, inits dirt and squalor, may be to the angels a fairer sight than the pampered offspring of the merchant prince. This is the trouble with this philanthropic mania which exhibits itself in Hot-corn stories, and Five Points romances. It does not go far enough; not deep enough. It is hard work seeking to cleanse the stream while the fountain is polluted. The trouble is not in this or that position—this or that want of developement. The trouble is in human nature itself. God's grace as well as man's endeavor, is needful in all true reform.

The ordinance opening Albany St. through Trinity Church yard has been repealed, so far as the Board of Aldermen is concerned, and "Crazy Kate" may rest a little in the arrangement of complimentary bouquets, and the presentation of prohibitory addresses. Did you hear of that extraordinary dealing in the Fancies? Imagine Upper-Tendom in silks, satins, and store-windows; lower Hundred Thousanddom in calico, straw and the Park, on the alert for the Fairy Light Guard in high heeled shoes. Even the desire to thwart the Slave Power in its advance against our rights, could scarcely draw such a crowd as the rumored coming of the N. Jersey Amazons. Through the long morning hours the watchers swayed to and fro with every fresh announcement of delay or approach; and the sun climbed to his seat in mid-heaven, and yet the Guard came not; came not, though an Astor dinner was to be carried; and a charge through the curiosities of the Museum. Barnum avers that he was deceived. As the Museum and the Palace found it a profitable deception, he probably does not object to the hoax.

This week, it is said, Wallack will play every night, Burton every night, and Mrs. Mowatt alternate with the Ravels at Niblo's. A Madame Grandfort has "made a hit," (womanly operation that sounds like,) as a discourser upon Woman's Rights. The subject that was hissed at Metropolitan Hall, was applauded at Stuyvesant Institute. There were two differences, one in the mode of viewing the subject, and the other in the character of the audience.

Mr. Apthomas, the eminent harpist, has been harping, whether on a new or the old string, I cannot say; and for to-night is advertised the first of Julien's Farewell Concerts. Those who would like a surfeit of amusements are invited to visit Gotham this month. VIOLET.

SALE OF A FARM.—We learn that our old friend, Col. WATSON, has sold his farm near Waukesha Village, to Dr. KENDRICK, of Poultney, Vermont, for $8350. The farm consists of 320 acres, well-located, under excellent cultivation and with substantial improvements. A portion of the stock is included in the sale. Dr. KENDRICK is one of the host of new comers from the Eastern States, who are flocking to Wisconsin this year. We cannot have too many of such settlers.

WATER CURE ESTABLISHMENT, IN MILWAUKEE.—We learn that Dr. GROSS, who has for some years past been connected with the Water Cure Establishment at Clifton N. Y., is now on a visit to our City, partly with a view to select a proper site for opening a similar institution here.—Wherever these establishments have been well-managed, they have not only proved productive as investments, but have attracted hundreds of visitors annually, from different parts of the Union. Dr. GROSS is very favorably impressed with the advantages of climate, position, water &c. which Milwaukee possesses, and hopes to find a location to suit him in the neighborhood of the City.

NEW THROUGH ROUTE.—The New York and Erie R. R. Co. has an office in Boston, where passengers are ticketed through to St. Louis, via New York, at the same rates as by Albany.

CAPE COLONY. The discovery of gold has given a great impetus to the old colony at the Cape of Good Hope. England has for some time been preparing to withdraw her control of the Sovereignty, and a Republican Organization is being formed, a provisional President having already been chosen.

HEAVY DAMAGES—THE NORWALK DISASTER.—The N. Y. & New Haven Railroad Co. has already paid $250,000 for damages by the disaster at Norwalk a year ago, and there still remains a further sum of $50,000 to be paid. There was but one suit, all the other claims having been settled.

> The Russian schooner Libertas, Captain Raas, was taken by the British, and a prize crew was put on board to navigate the vessel to England. Captain Raas, being acquainted with British tastes, supplied his captors with an unlimited allowance of brandy. They got drunk; the Russians nailed them below hatches, and carried them as prisoners into Carlscrona!

Chicago Sabbath Convention.

In answer to a call from a large number of clergymen and laymen in Chicago and vicinity, a Convention was held at that place for the purpose of devising measures for the better observance of the Sabbath. The Convention opened on the 17th and continued its sessions for two days. Great harmony characterised the deliberations of the body, notwithstanding it was made up of Christians of all denominations.

The desecration of the Sabbath by Railroad Companies in running their cars on that day; the tendency of their example in giving tone to public sentiment; the number of operatives they compel to engage in labor; and the moral bearing of their operations on the Sabbath being to secularize that holy time were the subjects of their deliberations. Christians in the vicinity of these thoroughfares feel a growing evil that must now be checked before it becomes too firmly fastened upon us. Numerous statements were made by those living upon the lines of the principal roads of the North West, and particularly by those residing at the terminus of these roads, showing the extent of this evil. To overcome it and give a right direction to the efforts of Christians and lovers of the Sabbath many schemes were proposed. It was asserted that the great reasons for running cars on the Sabbath were competition in business, and the mail service. Merchants and forwarders, it was contended, were as much to blame as corporations, in desiring their goods hurried forward, and always patronizing the most rapid conveyance.—Many of these are professors of religion, who would not violate the Sabbath themselves, but are not only willing but desirous that corporations do it for them. By investigation it was found that a large portion of the stock of Railroads was owned by professedly Christian men—and the great endeavor to bring the influence of these to bear on Railroad Companies, for a long time occupied the convention.

President BLANCHARD, of Knox College, Ill. brought in an able address intended to include all points discussed; in which also is an illustration of the power of rail road corporations.—Something of a detailed statement was made of the very favorable purvieges of the charter of the Illinois Central Company. From that statement it would seem that when the lands granted it shall be sold, their proceeds will more than pay for the road. The exposure of this feature of the company it was contended by some should not be made, being foreign to the object of the convention and an undue reflection on the company; by others that it ought to be made—and that no blame could attach to the members of the Company other than to DOUGLASS, as he framed and obtained the charter—and he seemed to be without a defender. The settlement of this question elicited a sharp debate that lasted the most of three hours.

The power of the Sabbath as a civilizing agent, was urged in the addresses with great pertinency and force.

A "Northwestern Sabbath Association" was formed after a lengthy discussion and much opposition. By many it was regarded as a lifeless organization—and that the great object desired could be better gained by conventions.

A series of resolutions were adopted recommending certain courses of action, and embodying the sense of the convention on certain leading topics.

Some 300 delegates were present from a different States. We regretted to see Wisconsin so poorly represented; there being but 6 or 8 from our State. Rev. Mr. MITER and J. WHITNEY were present as delegates from Milwaukee.

Supreme Court Decisions.

MADISON, May 19.

A. Summer, et al, vs. I. W. Brown, on error from Fond du Lac, Circuit Court. Opinion by Crawford J., affirming judgment of Court below.

G. H. Walker vs. Clark Shepardson, on appeal from Milwaukee Circuit Court. Opinion by Whiton, C. J., affirming decree of Court below.

L. H. Baldwin vs. J. Merrigold, et al., on error from Calumet County Court. Opinion by Smith, J., reversing judgment and remanding cause with directions to change venue.

Lavina Williams, et. al., vs. Wm. Field, on appeal from Lafayette Circuit Court. Opinion by Whiton, C. J., dismissing appeal.

☞ The article on the Nebraska question which we copy this morning from the N. Y. Evening Mirror, is significant of the feeling of the "Union and Compromise" men of New York towards the authors and abettors of this last and greatest outrage upon the North, Right and Freedom.

THE GOVERNOR.—A letter from Governor BARSTOW, received last week, informs us that he is in Washington, enjoying the best of health, and meeting with good success, in attending his proper business. Messrs. King & Co., please make a note of this.—Waukesha Chronotype.

With great pleasure. Any thing else we can do for you, neighbor? If not, oblige us by stating what Gov. BARSTOW'S "proper business" at Washington is.

CHOLERA AT GALENA.—The Galena Gazette of the 16th inst. reports three deaths from cholera in that town, during the preceding three days.—It adds:

> In every case, as we hear, the disease gave full warning of its approach by a diarrhœa, which might have been easily checked no doubt with the usual remedies, to be had of any of the regular physicians or apothecaries. We hear of no new cases, nor do we believe there is any danger, where the usual symptoms are treated with proper decision.

The Gazette of the 19th says that no other cases had occurred and seems to apprehend no further spread of the disease.

☞ The Post office clerks tell us that the package of the Milwaukee Sentinel last evening, contained no copy for us. We can ill afford to miss a single number.—Chicago Dem. Press.

And shall not, if an extra caution to our Mail Clerks will mend the matter.

PASSENGER DROWNED.—We learn from Mr. GEO. DOUSMAN, one of the owners of the Propeller Milwaukee which left here on Monday last for Buffalo, that he has received a letter from the clerk stated that a passenger, name unknown, who went on board at this port, was seized with convulsion while the boat was still in this lake, and again on Lake Huron on Tuesday night, and while out of his mind threw himself overboard shortly after midnight. His trunk will be brought back, and may be found at DOUSMAN & Co's, on the return of the Milwaukee.

THE Wisconsin says that the man's name was Roberts.

THE "REAL SIMON PURE."—It was like meeting an old and esteemed friend, to find on our table, a few days since, a package from that Prince of Confectioners, EDWARD EMERY of Milwaukee. EMERY is an original, and has a pleasant way of doing a clever thing, as unlike any one else, as his celebrated candies are superior to anything of the kind in the West. He is the "Stuart" of the Lakes, in these matters, and we parted with a valuable neighbor, when we left Milwaukee for the Garden City—we found none like him here, in his line. If he could have witnessed the happy countenance of our youngest, with the rich treasure in her arms, it would have provoked from his rich store of wit, something more appropriate, than we have the power of uttering.—The package was more than welcome, and all we regret is, that we don't know where to get anything like the choice variety in this city, contained in that package.—Chicago Courant.

MICHIGAN SOUTHERN RAILROAD.—Four passenger trains leave this city daily on this thoroughfard, for the East. The telegraph express train leaves every morning, (Sundays excepted) at 6 o'clock, reaching Toledo in eight hours' time, arriving there at 2 P. M., where (after stopping 55 minutes for dinner) it connects with the express on the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad, reaching the "Forest City" at 7½ o'clock in the evening. This is literally "going through by daylight."—Chicago Tribune.

THE PROSPECT.—Farmers tell us that there has not been so good a prospect for a crop of grass and grains for fifteen years as now appears.—Racine Adv.

A Manifesto from the Czar.

The Atlantic brings among other items, the following remarkable proclamation by the Czar, relative to his position in the pending contest:

St. Petersburg, April 11, (23.)

By the grace of God, we, Nicholas the First, Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russians, King of Poland, &c., &c., to all our subjects make known, since the commencement of our differences with the government, we have solemnly announced to our faithful subjects that a sentiment of justice had alone induced us to reestablish the violated rights of the orthodox Christians, subjects of the Ottoman Porte.

We have not sought, we do not seek to make conquests, nor to exercise in Turkey any supremacy whatever, that might be likely to exceed that influence which belongs to Russia by virtue of existing treaties.

At that period we already encountered distrust, then soon a covert hostility on the parts of the government of France and England, who endeavored to lead the Porte astray, by misrepresenting our intentions. Lastly, at this moment, England and France throw off the mask, regard our difference with Turkey as a mere secondary question, and no longer dissemble that their sole object is to weaken Russia, to tear from her a part of her possessions, and to bring down our country from the powerful position to which the hand of the Supreme Being had exalted it.

It is for orthodox Russia to fear such threats? Ready to confound the audacity of the enemy, shall she swerve from the secret purpose that has been assigned to her by Divine Providence! No! Russia has not forgotten God! It is not for worldly interests that she has taken up arms; she combats for the Christian faith, for the defence of co-religionists oppressed by implacable enemies.

Let all Christendom know, then, that the thought of the Sovereign of Russia is also the thought that animates and inspires all the great family of the Russian people—this orthodox people, faithful to God and to his only Son Jesus Christ: our Redeemer.

It is for the faith and for Christendom that we combat.

God with us—who against us!

Given at St, Petersburg, on the 11th day of the month of April, in the year of grace 1854, and the twenty-ninth of our reign

NICHOLAS.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY—BRANCH TO SARNIA.—We copied from the Port Huron Commercial last week a paragraph speaking discouragingly of the prospects of the above railroad. By the following from the same paper, it will be seen that a better state of things now exists;

> GREAT WESTERN RAIL ROAD.—We had to announce, last week, the discontinuance of the work upon the Sarnia branch of this great thoroughfare. We are highly gratified to learn, that later orders from the directors have occasioned its resumption, and that it will now be pressed steadily to completion. We are informed by one of the contractors, that unless the ensuing fall should turn out unusually unfavorable, the grading will have been completed before winter sets in, and that within one year from this date, the road will be in readiness for the cars.
> The company have finally secured the right of way through the Chippewa Reservation, just below Sarnia, and have also purchased all the ground desired for the purpose of a depot, &c., all upon terms perfectly satisfactory to themselves and to the Indians. The amount paid, we understand, was about $8,000; or $3,600 for the right of way, and $4,000 for four acres of ground.

A CONSTITUTIONAL ARGUMENT. The Wisconsin is improving. The following is its reply to the Beloit Journal, which had presented a fair and respectable argument, as to the unconstitutionality of Senator Hunter's appointment as Private Secretary:

> This 7 by 9 whig sheet has just ascertained that Governor Barstow committed an unconstitutional and unpardonable sin in appointing Senator Hunter his Private Secretary. Hold on Mr.——we don't know what your name is, because you don't put it in your paper. Let us say to you that this appointment has been been dissected by all the whig physicians and Sand Machines in the State long ago, and others have come to the conclusion that the Governor has the right to select whom he chooses for his private Secretary.

Rail Road Celebration.

State Agricultural Society.

The third annual meeting of the State Agricultural Society took place this forenoon. The following persons were chosen officers for the ensuing year:

President—ELISHA W. EDGERTON of Waukesha.

Secretary—Albert C. Ingham of Madison.

Treasurer—Samuel Marshall of Madison.

Executive Committee—Samuel S. Daggett of Milwaukee, Richard E. Ela of Racine, H. N. Smith of Sheboygan, A. F. Cady of Jefferson, Mark Miller of Rock, Talbot O. Dousman of Waukesha, George O. Tiffany of Milwaukee.

The proceedings were entirely harmonious, and the re-election of Mr. EDGERTON as President and Mr. INGHAM as Secretary of the Society speaks well for the manner in which those officers have performed their respective duties during the past year.—Madison Journal.

The Steamer Pike Sunk—Great Number of Lives Lost.

The Pike left our wharf at 4 P. M., of Thursday, the 11th inst, having on board about one hundred and eighty passengers, crew, &c. The boat had a delightful run until near Wilkinson's Landing, one hundred miles from St. Louis.

About one o'clock at night, when all the passengers were asleep, and the boat was making some fifteen miles an hour, she struck a snag or rock, which tore her bottom out and caused her to sink with great rapidity. Not more than three minutes elapsed before the water was up to the ladies' cabin. So sudden was the accident, that women and children became frantic with apprehension. Mothers were screaming for their children—husbands seeking for their wives—ministers seeking, on their knees, the aid and protection of God.

A very aged gentleman and his wife, of Missouri, were going on a visit to their daughter, residing in the neighborhood of Madison, some fifteen miles back. They were drowned. When the boat struck, she caressed so suddenly that the water filled her berths before the occupants could get out. Two other persons, jumped overboard in front of the wheel house, were lost. Three others sprang out at the stern of the vessel, and sank to rise no more.

One lady was caught by the hair of the head, and saved from drowning.

Of course, the passengers were only dressed in their night clothes, and great quantities of clothing were seen floating about the boat, which they attempted to recover.

The boat careened from the shore, and numbers went overboard at this moment. No list of passengers was made out after they had reached the shore and the excitement was over, and it is not probable that the exact number of the lost will ever be ascertained. This ought to have been done, and we are surprised that it was neglected.

The accident occurred when the boat was within some thirty or forty feet of the shore.—The life-preservers which were on board are condemned as utterly useless and unavailing for the purpose of saving life.—St. Louis Repub.

TALL WHEAT.—We have now in our office a clump of wheat upwards of three feet in height. This is pretty tall for the season. It was brought to us by Mr. Merrill Brown, who obtained it while on a late tour in the country. He also declares he saw some pieces that were, or soon would be, heading out.—Beaver Dam Republican.

WASHINGTON May 19.—Senate.—Mr. Cooper laid on the table a substitute for the bill suspending the duty on Railroad iron. The resolutions offered by Mr. Slidell were adopted; directing Committee on Commerce to inqure into the propriety of making suitable acknowledgment to the Capt. and crew of the steamer Washington for rescuing the passengers of the Winchester;

The Nebraska Outrage.

The meeting in the Park on Saturday evening, was imposing in point both of numbers and the character of those who composed it. It was an almost spontaneous gathering. Only a short notice was given, and none of the usual political baits——music, banners and cannon firing—were laid out to collect a crowd. Yet a vast mass of people, of the mercantile, professional, mechanic and laboring classes, gathered around the platform, their up turned faces betraying mingled intelligence and indignation. It was clear to any one, standing amid the crowd,—despite the false and sneering assertion of one or two journals that only Abolitionists and Free-Soilers are opposed to the Nebraska Outrage—that no political procedure since the foundation of this Union, has so roused the deep spirit of the people; so sunk all other questions of legislation; so effaced party lines and considerations, in view of a common peril to be avoided and a common safety to be preserved, as this perfidious Nebraska scheme—openly proposing to repeal the Missouri Compromise, to trample under foot the labors of the great pacificators, whose voices, raised through years of sacrifice to preserve the Union in peace and harmony, are now silent in the dust; and to renew, ere the ashes of Webster and Clay are cold, the war cries of agitation and disunion.

The truth cannot be disguised in regard to this question. The honest sentiment of the country—North, South, East and West—is opposed to the Nebraska bill. Throughout the free States, particularly, the voice of indignant protest, from public meetings, petitions and the press, has rung from every hill and valley—and for a time, after Mr. Cutting had shelved the contemplated infamy, as it was hoped and thought forever, the thunders of the people seemed to have silenced the demagogues and traitors in Congress, and the country breathed freer, and calmer. But the concoctors of the outrage mistook the country's restored calm for a passive abandonment of the struggle.—They fancied the people were wearied with protesting, and would acquiesce if the Douglas scheme were once more galvanized to life. So they applied their batteries, and a political monster, which the South would have not have dared, or would have scorned—as a breach of faith—to have originated, but which was coached by a Northern free State man, and which, to this hour, owes its nursing and life to Northern representatives, was thrust forward again—backed by a Federal Administration elected under a pledge to oppose reagitation of the Slavery question, and which, though it can purchase traitors to the Union by gifts of executive place and power, is politically without a party, and morally dead—and now threatens to be vitalized with a permanent life.

And again the people lift up their voice in public meetings and petitions, and a fresh tide of indignation beats against the Capitol. The gathering on Saturday was the fourth great cry raised in this city, by men of all parties and creeds—calling upon their representatives in Congress to crush the foulest of all modern iniquities. But we fear the cry will not avail. A horde of time and self-serving men, greedy for plunder, infest the national councils, and, coaxed or goaded by a perfidious administration, stagger under the weight of bribes from the plain way of duty.—But let them be assured that, should the Nebraska scheme pass—as by their aid only it can—their political graves are dug, and the sod lies ready to bury them out of sight forever. Let the bill pass, and they will stink in the nostrils of honest men. The South is but an indirect party to this fraud. She did not move it—she did not ask it—she abhors the Northern traitors in her heart—there was no petition in its favor, when, suddenly, a Northern huckster for a seat, he will never reach, startled and shocked the national sense by a proposition to repeal the Missouri compromise. Had the proposition been made in the Northern interest, and pushed to its present issue, civil war would have ensued long ere this. But the North is patient under concession, and observant of plighted faith, and though het millions were indignant, and have feared much, they are, even yet, not prepared to believe the outrage will be consummated.

All the indications are, however, that it will be consummated, and a woe will be the consequence.

With no bond of compromise, the two great interests—freedom and slavery—of the Union will stand arrayed in open and endless hostility.—Would to God the Orator of Marshfield and the Sage of Ashland yet lived! Could they but stand in the midst of the Senate for one hour, they would wither the Nebraska iniquity, and its author and abettors, to the earth, with the lightnings of their patriotism and scorn.—Perhaps the schemers and traitors think, the bill once passed, the country will sink to repose and forget the infamy. No! a thousand times no! The violators of the country's peace, and of the memory of the mighty dead, will not be forgotten. Every man will be marked, and politically annihilated. In the great State of New York, there is not a Congressional district in which a Nebraskian could be elected—even if one could be nominated. It is so in all the North. Our parties will be forgotten in the future of this issue, and men will not ask whether a candidate be whig or democrat, for a tariff or not, but whether he was against the Missouri Compromise and for Nebraska. And as he shall answer, so will be his fate. Benjamin F. Butler, the political companion of Jackson, and who voted for Pierce, standing on the Baltimore platform, declared on Saturday that, were the contest for the Presidency between Wm. H. Seward and Stephen Arnold Douglas, he would vote for the former, if it were the last act of his life. Here is an index of the future.—N. Y. Evening Mirror.

THOUBLES NEVER COME SINGLY.—Frank, a little son of Isaac Taylor Esq. of this city, when up to the pineries a few days since, where he had gone on a pleasure excursion with one or two other children of the city, had a couple of narrow escapes. He first fell into the water, when he escaped by the aid of others with a soaking and a fright. He then, in order to dry, we suppose, clambered up on to a burning coal pit, the top of which he soon reached and fell thro' into the fire; after getting satisfactorily burned he rolled himself out, and is now undergoing repairs. He will be ready for the Menagerie as soon as the next Elephant comes along.—Racine Advocate.

YEAS AND NAYS.—During the exciting parliamentary contest, which began Thursday at twelve o'clock, m., and terminated Friday at twelve o'clock, m.—thirty-six hours—votes on yeas and nays were taken one hundred times. These, if published in the Globe, would occupy twelve columns in the smallest type used for the Congressional proceedings. It is very doubtful whether a sufficiency of the peculiar sorts used in that description of matter could be found in all the offices in the city combined. For that reason, and a further one that few, if any, of these votes involved any great principle, the reporter has not included in his report any except the first sets, which show the object of the movement, all the other votes being similar, in fact, very nearly the same whenever the same person voted.—Congressional Globe, May 15.

HENRY J. NAZRO & Co.—This is one of the most enterprising firms in the whole west. They are now building a new store, sixty by one hundred and twenty feet, four stories high, and to be finished in a style superior to any building in the state. We rejoice in the prosperity of such men. They are an honor to the whole state, as well as to the city in which they do business. Their new advertisement will be found in our paper to day. —Janesville Gazette.

LA CROSSE RAILROAD.—At the recent session of the Board of Directors of this Road, the Contractors on the line between Milwaukee and Horicon were ordered to double their forces, and there is no grading between those two points that will not be completed within three months. The road will certainly be finished to Horicon this fall, and should the money market lift a little it may reach here or Fox Lake.—Beaver Dam Republican.

Messrs. Chapman & Co., have bought the Edgington & Williams diggings, at Wingville, for $9000. It is supposed to be a rich prospect. Prospect, among miners, means a fair show for a load. Lead, means any diggings producing 100,000 lbs of lead ore or upwards. Lode is the Book word for lead.

The miners at Wingville are all doing well.—We believe lands are cheaper in that neighborhood than anywhere else in Grant County. It is an excellent place for farming. There are several recent departures for California, among the rest, Mr. A. Leadbetter.—Grant County Herald.

Our Village.

We are averaging about two boats a day. Our village is full of strangers, and among the number, we notice Dr. Judd of Fox Lake, President of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R., Mr. Chittenden, one of the contractors in said road, and Dr. Terry. These gentlemen came through on the line of the road and expressed themselves highly pleased at the feasibility of the route as well as the fine appearance of the town. New buildings are being commenced every day. The ferry boat "Wild Rate" is again running regular trips from this village to the Minnesota shore and hundreds of emigrants are going into that fine territory opposite La Crosse to settle, and there is room for thousands more. Village property is changing hands at fair prices, and sales are daily made to those who are settling permanently in our village and yet there is room. We especially want a brick-maker, lime-burner, plough-factory and cabinet-ware-shop—but above all we want a good lumber yard. Messrs. Burns & Gridley have just supplied their Livery Stable with some 8 or 10 new buggies just received from Cincinnati, and by the way this reminds us that we need a carriage maker.—La Crosse Dem.

HARBOR RELINQUISHED.—The Common Council have relinquished the interest of the City in the Harbor to the General Government, on condition it will take charge of the same and keep it in repair.—Sheboygan Secretary.

FARMER'S GIRLS.

Straining the milk in the dairy, turning the cows away,
Sweeping the floor in the kitchen, making the beds upstairs,
Washing the breakfast dishes, dusting the parlor chairs;

Cleaning the turnips for dinner, spinning the stocking yarn,
Ransacking every meadow, where the red strawberries grow;

Starching the "frens" for Sunday, churning the snowy cream,
Rinsing the pails and strainer down in the running stream,
Feeding the geese and turkies, making the pumpkin pies,
Jogging the little one's cradle, driving away the flies;

Grace in every motion, music in every tone,
Beauty of form and feature thousands might covet to own,
Cheeks that rival spring roses, teeth the whitest of pearls—

City Matters.

CIRCUIT COURT---May Term.

JUDGE RUSSELL PRESIDING.

Saturday May, 20th.

Wm. A. Prentiss vs. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Milwaukee.—Action in assumpsit, verdict for Plaintiff; Damages $129,31. A. Finch Jr. for Plaintiff, Butler District Attorney for defendants.

POLICE COURT, MAY 20th.

The case of the City vs. Catharine Ryan for being drunk and disorderly was held open till Monday, and the defendant told that if she was found in the city during the afternoon she would be taken to jail.

A warrant was issued against a man named Ryley for threatening to kill James O'Neil on the 19th of May.

The case of the City vs. Wm. N. Webber, charged with violating bridge ordinance, was adjourned two weeks by consent of both parties.

In the case of the state vs. Nancy O'Brien, for assault and battery upon Mary Dywine, the bail was declared forfeited. The defendant, it is said, has left town, which is the best disposition the case could take.

A man named Thomas Riley, was brought up by Constable Kessler on a charge of threatening to kill James O'Neil. As several witnesses had to be sent for, the case was set down for this morning, at 10 o'clock. The defendant was required to give bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance, and to keep the pence in the mean time: no bail was given and defendant was taken to jail.

Excursion to Madison.—We are glad to learn that the Orchestra and Chorus of our Milwaukee Musical Society intend to accompany the Excursion train to Madison to-morrow, and will give our friends at the Capital a taste of their quality, as well as help, by their excellent music, to while away the time on the trip.

Strawberries.—We are assured by a friend, well posted in the mystery of raising fine Strawberries, that Mr. Newland, who advertises in our columns that he will be here, during the coming week, with choice plants of eight different varieties, may be relied upon to fulfil what he promises, and to furnish the best of plants. In a year or two, Milwaukee will challenge all competitors in raising strawberries.

☞ The Traveller, Capt. Cooper, arrived from Chicago Saturday afternoon, with over 300 passengers and a heavy freight. These boats have all they can do to accommodate the growing business of our Lake Ports.

☞ The Buffalo Courier says truly of our city: During the next year, Milwaukee will begin to move forward with a double progress, under the influence of her numerous railways diverging into the country, and her Harbor will then be better than any other on Lake Michigan.

☞ We were indebted on Saturday evening to Mr. G. M. Colgate for New York papers, one day later than the mail.

Tax Certificates held by the City.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Milwaukee:

I hereby submit to your examination a list of lots, sold for the County taxes of 1850, and for the City taxes, under a special act, approved January 24th, 1851, on which the City holds one part of the certificates, while the other part was sold to purchasers at the Tax sale.—These certificates being forfeited at the end of this month, the holders of the same will be entitled to receive deeds therefor. In order to protect the interests of the City, who holds by far the larger amount of these tax certificates, it will be necessary to redeem for the City, those certificates that are held by other purchasers, to prevent them from getting tax deeds. From the annexed list, you will perceive that the whole amount necessary to be redeemed, will not exceed $200, while, in all probability, more than one-half of these certificates will be settled before they all become forfeited.

I would therefore respectfully suggest to your honorable body, that I may be authorized to make such preliminary entries on the books, on all lots where it will be required, by which these lots, after being forfeited, may be considered redeemed any time before a deed is to be executed, in all such cases, where the purchaser of the other tax certificates is not willing to make up the certificate held by the City; or to give me such instructions, by which I may be prevented from executing tax deeds in all such cases as above referred to—where the interests of the City might be prejudiced by her holding a tax certificate for the same, or previous years, while the same lot is sold to another purchaser, who will claim a deed therefore.

I have only further to remark, that under the new City charter, the purchaser of a tax certificate for a later year is obliged, in case that the City should hold certificates on the same lot for any previous years, to take up those certificates before he can receive an assignment thereof from the Treasurer: which law was not in existence when the sale of the taxes for 1850 and 1851 took place. Therefore, cases of a similar nature as those referred to, will not occur in the City tax sales for 1852, and the following years.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Fred. Kuehn, City Treasurer.

Milwaukee, May 18, 1854.

On the 17th of November last, he purchased the whole lot, 50 feet, for $1500—a fair advance. He also sold 50 acres in Oak Creek for $1000, which cost him $600 last January; and last evening was offered an advance of $500, on a farm purchased on Wednesday last for $3000. Real Estate looks up in this vicinity.—Morning News.

WE refer to the following Testimonials:

Sir:—L. Dousman.—Sir:

Having used one of Kidder's Gas Regulators, we find it gives a more clear and beautiful Light, and its saving in consumption is very great. We would cheerfully recommend it in general use.

WEDDELL HOUSE, Cleveland, April 10, 1854.

We have had one of Kidder's Patent Gas Regulators in use for two months, and as the best evidence of our complete satisfaction, we give below an abstract of our Gas Bills for the past three months.

January, no Regulator.....$122,40
February, with Regulator..... 77,10
March, with Regulator..... 66,90

All the above difference should not be attributed to the use of the Regulator, but we are confident that it has increased our Gas Bills from twenty-five to thirty-three per cent, and at the same time affords us a clear and steady light at a uniform pressure, independent of the number of burners in use. Signed, C. C. BUTTS & SON.

TURTON & SERCOMB,

Proprietors,

RESPECTFULLY beg to inform their friends and the public generally, that they continue to manufacture all kinds of

Cast and Wrought Iron Works,

for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, at their well known establishment, Nos. 293 and 300 West Water Street.

They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a pattern maker of twenty years' experience; the other a moulder of thirty year's experience. They likewise employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.

Their stock of patterns cannot be equalled—they have all been made in this city, expressly for the wants of this State—and they can and will do better than any similar establishment in this State, and on the most reasonable terms.
